

MISS SOUTHEAST RULES AND REGULATIONS

I hereby apply as a contestant in the Miss Southeast pageant.

I am not married, have never been married, and have never had a marriage annulled. I have never given birth to a child and am not now pregnant nor am I a parent. If any of these conditions change I will notify my Pageant Director immediately and I understand that this may affect my eligibility.

I am of good health and moral character.

I am a naturally born female and a citizen of the United States.

I hereby release, unconditionally and forever, any claim against Miss Southeast, its related companies and their respective officers, directors, partners, employees, agents and assigns, which I may have by virtue of my participation in the Miss Southeast pageant or by any use of my name, likeness, voice, and or biography in connection with the Miss Southeast pageant, including use in promotional and advertising material.

I understand and agree that all issues of eligibility shall be determined by Miss Southeast and I agree to abide by that determination both as to myself and other applicants.

I further agree to permit my photograph, voice recording and name to be used without charge for all publicity and commercial purposes and any telecast of Miss Southeast.

I agree that I will make no appearances whatsoever unless official authorization is granted by the Miss Southeast organization or its agents. I understand and agree that doing so could result in the loss of my title and return of any and all prizes awarded.

I agree that I will not incur, and am not authorized to incur, any debts on behalf of the Miss Southeast pageant, Tina Carter.

I voluntarily disclose that prior to the date of this pageant, I have not engaged in any activities, which if disclosed to the public, would bring, or tend to bring, myself into disrepute, ridicule or contempt.

I understand that I am free to withdraw from the competition at any time, but under no circumstances will I be entitled to a refund or transfer to another contestant any fee, either full or part, that I or my sponsors have paid. There will be absolutely no exceptions to this policy.

Failure of the winning contestant to comply with any of the terms, provisions, restrictions or obligations hereof, at the option of Tina Carter, shall result in entrant's disqualification, loss of title, and return of any and all prizes awarded.

By the signatures below, applicants and her parent or guardian certify that they have read and understand the rules and regulations as set forth within and that applicant meets the requirements and will comply with the rules and regulations stated. Any untrue statement or failure to comply may result in applicant's disqualification.

WHO WE ARE....

While pursuing her degree in Communications at the University of South Carolina-Aiken, Tina Carter was privileged to begin working with a USA pageant production for the states of North Carolina, South Carolina and Louisiana. She participated in all aspects of producing a state pageant, but her favorite responsibilities focused on helping the contestants themselves. Highlights included co-authoring an article for a national Pageant Magazine, meeting former Universe winner Shawn Weatherly, and attending a nationally televised teen-USA production.

Tina has been married to her husband Blane for 14 years. They have a 3-year-old son, Christian, and welcomed baby Alexis in November. They enjoy living in Augusta, where they operate a thriving online Health and Beauty business.

OUR JUDGING PHILOSOPHY....

Having participated in, and being affiliated with pageants for many years, we respect the amount of time and energy contestants and their families must devote to competing. Therefore, we believe contestants should be judged fairly, by non-biased judges, who have extensive experience in pageantry or related areas such as cheerleading, modeling, or acting. Our commitment to each contestant, her family, and to the Miss Southeast pageant itself is to maintain high standards by placing such priority on selecting reputable, qualified judges.
